Application: Native American Congressional Internships

http://aislc.blogspot.com/2008/09/application-native-american.html

The Native American Congressional Internship Program provide Native Americans and Alaska Natives with an inside view of the federal government. Our ten-week internship in Washington, D.C., places students in Senate and House offices, committees, Cabinet departments and the White House, where they are able to observe government decision-making process first-hand.

In 2009, the Foundation expects to award 12 Internships on the basis of merit to Native Americans and Alaska Natives who:

- Are college juniors or seniors, recent graduates from tribal or four-year colleges, or graduate or law student

- Have demonstrated an interest infields related to tribal public policy such as tribal governance, tribal law, Native American education, Native American health, Native American justice, natural resource protection, cultural preservation and revitalization, and Native American economic development
